From Elaine Bell, "In October 1878 John, his wife Margaret (nee McPherson), along with their five adult children (Margaret, Janet, Mary, Ronald and John) emigrated to North Dakota. Angus was born circa 1818 in Islay, most probably in the area of Conisby, Kilchoman which was the known residence of his Father Ronald and youngest Brother CCAB in 1823."

Angus Bell is shown as being a "conveyancer, issuer of marriage licenses and Township Clerk of Nottawasaga, Twp., coroner." He was the Township Clerk from 1850 until his death in 1897.

Jane was born in Ireland and was probably living in the Township of Innisfil or West Gwillimbury where she met Angus. They were married in approximately 1841.

The inscription on the Bell family monument in Union Cemetery incorrectly lists Jane's death as 1897. The actual year of her death was 1878.

We find both Niel and Neil in the various records. His gravestone reads Niel.

From the Jamestown Weekly Alert, July 4, 1878.

"Neil Bell, last Monday morning procured a pony and started before having his breakfast, in search of cattle which had strayed off, supposing that he would find them immediately. He soon got on their track, and found they had started for Minnesota, their old home. After following most of the day he concluded to return, as he thought he was without provisions, and he thought that it was a long time between meals. At supper he declared henceforth as long as he stayed in Dakota, nothing should induce him to start anywhere until he had laid in a good breakfast. Tuesday, John Bell and Geo. W. Vennum, well prepared with supplies, started on the trail of the cattle, determined to bring them back."

Mrs. Margaret Pettigrew left on Thursday for Santa Fe, on the Isle of Pines. This will be her third visit to that tropical island, where her plantation of oranges and grape fruit is just coming into bearing, some grape fruit having been shipped the present winter. Mrs Pettigrew will remain on the island several months before returning home.<sup>20</sup>

Margaret's Find A Grave page shows that she was born in 1847 and her marker clearly shows that. However, there is evidence to support the December 1845 that we currently show including the 1900 ND, Stutsman, Jamestown census.<sup>19</sup>

Thomas PETTIGREW<sup>1</sup> [15191] was born in Aug 1842 in Glasco, Scotland.<sup>1 18 21</sup> He died on 12 Dec 1915 in Jamestown.<sup>1</sup> He was buried in McGinnis Cemetery.<sup>21</sup>

The University of Michigan student list published in 1923 shows Margaret McPherson Pettigrew also listed as Mrs. James E.

Campbell. Also, Thomas Pettigrew is here shown as being born in August 1842. His obit reported 1843. As mentioned earlier, wife Margaret is here shown as being born in December 1845 even though the Find A Grave page which we have already seen shows a marker that clearly reads 1847.

From the Jamestown Weekly Alert (Jamestown, ND), March 2, 1880, an early history retrospective.

"April 25th, 1878, John Bell, Jr., gazed for the first time upon the fair valley of the James; he came from Collingwood, Ontario, Canada; took up claims two and a half miles north of town on the Pipestem; and in the fall of the same year, his parents, two sisters and brother, Ronald Bell, followed him. They have all taken claims in the vicinity of each other and now have one of the nicest and best equipped farms in the county. The first year, John BVell, jr., broke forth acres: he did his work in season, in a good workmanlike manner, and sowed his seed in time in the spring of '79. The result of which care and attention he raised thirty bushels of wheat to the acre last fall and has made himself the premium farmer in Stutsman county.

Niel Bell, one of oure constables, came in company with John B., jr. from Stayner, Ontario, Canada.: He took up a claim three miles north of town and is one of our most efficient men of labor to help in the time of need."

From the Jamestown Weekly Alert, July 11, 1878.

"John Bell and Geo W. Venum, mentioned in our last as having gone in search of a stray yoke of cattle, after passing old Ft. Ransom, distant 50 miles south-east, came up with the runaways, who were making a straight shoot for their old home in Minnesota, and the next day returned with them, having made a round trip of 110 miles in 42 hours. All, both men and beasts were thoroughly tired, the runaways especially so, and we do not think they assay another runaway for some time."

Thomas and Margaret Pettigrew had a daughter who was shown as Mrs. James E. Campbell in Thomas Pettigrew's obit. The 1900 North Dakota, Stutsman, Jamestown census shows this daughter as Margaret McP born in January 1876 in Canada. It seemed likely that McP stood for McPherson and, indeed, that is shown to be the case in the University of Michigan student list published in 1923 where Margaret McPherson Pettigrew is also listed as Mrs. James E. Campbell. Also, Thomas Pettigrew is here shown as being born in August 1842. His obit reported 1843. As mentioned earlier, wife Margaret is here shown as being born in December 1845 even though the Find A Grave page which we have already seen shows a marker that clearly reads 1847.<sup>74</sup>

Find A Grave provides a different birth date for Margaret than that shown in the 1900 census. Her marker in the McGinnis Cemetery, Jamestown, clearly reads January 10, 1877. She died July 25, 1955.<sup>73</sup>

Testimony to show that the present wages of acoma carmen are not enough to clothe their wives and children properly, that they are unable to save a cent for future or provide anything but the barest necessities, was offered by Mr. Charles J. Hopwood, wife of conductor, living at 3616 East I st., and by Mrs. Charles Sturmer, wife of a motorman of 1146 So. 36th<sup>82</sup>

Find A Grave tells us that Flora was Flora Mae and was born in Nebraska. The 1900 census reported North Dakota which seems more likely.

Charles Jessie HOPWOOD<sup>78 83 84</sup> [15628] was born on 30 Dec 1875 in Dresden, Iowa.<sup>83 84 81</sup> He died in 1961 in Pierce County.<sup>84</sup> He was buried in Oakwood Hill Cemetery, Tacoma, WA.<sup>84</sup> He and Flora Mae GRIFFIN had the following children:

The California Death Index reports that Margaret died November 8, 1953 in San Diego. Her birth date is shown as March 9, 1880 in North Dakota. but a different date of birth is shown on the U.S. National Cemetery Interment Control form which reports January 9, 1881. Note from Greg Mander to Randy Richardson regarding a visit to All Saint's Anglican Cemetery

Sept 3,2002 - "A couple of weeks ago, I was in the Collingwood library where I checked the All Saint's Anglican Cemetery listing. It was a new listing and the surprising thing was that this listing did not have John Taylor or his son Henry listed. During my Monday Sept 2 visit to the cemetery, I came across the caretaker and told him who I was looking for and the problem of the two conflicting listings. He knew right away who I was looking for and asked me if I was the person who had been in touch with the Church. Of course that was you, Randy. He took me over to the spot that he had identified as being the location of the grave-a site without a stone. I pulled out the old listing I had and we agreed that this spot didn't make sense as being correct. We went over to his truck, he had the new listing which also didn't fit the spot he had picked -he phoned his office for them to verify my old listing and than we went out there to look again. I spotted a stone that was on my list and all of a sudden realized that the direction of the stones went off in an east west direction where they are normally south to north. We followed each stone in order of my listing and there was still another stone to look at in that row and it turned out to be Henry's!!!! It is in very poor condition and most of it is unreadable being of that soft white stone they used in those days. There is a fair amount of lichen and black fungus on the stone. The caretaker started scrapping it with a knife which was only making matters worse. I asked him to stop and told him we would use soap and water along with a brush. We tried to do a rubbing but didn't have the correct paper or pencil. There is also another large stone at this place which is in real bad shape but it could be John's. The caretaker was going to get someone else to look at it."

Pre-1940s Ranching

Angus Bell – Bell was born in Ontario, Canada, in 1876. His parents moved to Jamestown, ND, when he was young. At age 15, he went out west to Medora and got a job breaking horses at the Eaton Brothers Dude Ranch. Bell later filed on a homestead west of Medora and developed his own ranch. He won the heart of a Jamestown girl and persuaded her that setting up housekeeping on the ranch out west was her destiny. They had one son, Edwin.

Highly respected and well known as a rancher, Bell not only ranched for more than 30 years, but he also traded horses and ran a livery stable in Medora. Tom Mix depended on Bell to train and board his horses. Lucky and/or skilled in poker, Bell won the Rough Rider Hotel in a card game and became its proprietor for years. Bell died in the dead of winter of 1935 and is buried in the Medora Cemetery.

From an Ancestry.com Family Tree.

Morris Livers disappeared in the summer of 1925, possibly within the month of June. He was never heard from again. His five year old son, Johnny, was with him at the garage where Morris worked as a mechanic remembers that day.

"I can remember walking uptown, a distance of only 2 or 3 blocks, just to be near him while he worked. He owned and operated a garage, a place which fascinates small boys. As I neared the garage I could see that he had the car out and that there were two strangers with him wearing dark suits and hats. I could see that they were ready to leave, my dad with them, and I recall begging to go along. Dad told me that he couldn't take me and handed me a quarter so that I could go to the meat market and buy some hamburger and take it home for supper. As I stood there in the street they started the car and left town. All of this is a vivid today as the day it happened. It remains as much a mystery today as it was then. People who knew him said that he would not have left of his own free will, that he was forced to leave possibly by threat of bodily harm to his family. The eternal burning question is, why? I have always had the feeling that he was driven to some remote area and they took his life. But all is pure conjecture and there isn't anyone alive today who can tell us the truth."

Esther's death certificate reports that she born August 27, 1904. This is a bit of a problem. It not only conflicts with the 1910 census where Esther was shown as 3 years old, but the math on the certificate doesn't match up. She is reported to be 67 years old at death in 1975. If the birth date is 1904, that only bring us to 1971. Or, if she died in March 1975 (that much seems certain) and she was 67 years old, that gives us a birth year of 1908. This seems more likely so we would have to conclude that the 1904 birth date is incorrect. Might just be better to stick with "about 1907" since clearly there is something wrong here.

POLICE CONTINUE CLOSE INQUIRY IN HIGHWAY TRAGEDY - Young Woman Killed on Falling From Cab of Moving Truck. Had Been Given Lift By Driver-No Eye Witnesses.

Provincial police are continuing their investigation and an autopsy is being performed on instructions from Dr. J. H. Mullen, chief coroner, into the death of Margaret (Marguerite) Robinson, 22, of this city, who was injured fatally early last evening when she fell from the cab of a truck as it was climbing Ancaster mountain on highway No. 2, just opposite Westmount

Memorial cemetery. Sergeant S. H. Bush, of provincial headquarters, said that details of the inquiry would be reported this afternoon to George W. Ballard, K.C., crown attorney, and that, in the meantime, Eugene Rose, provincial highway traffic officer, was making a farther examination of the truck involved. It is being held at Bailey garage pending further inquires. The young woman had been staying at the King George hotel here since April 17, and was said to have been going to Delhi to seek work when the mishap occurred.

Was Given Lift

Harold McMullen, driver of the truck, owned by the M. and A. Transport company, Delhi, stated that he had picked up the young woman at Dundum and Main streets. She had told him, that she wished to go to Delhi to look for work. She had no luggage. Traffic Officers David Rogers and Eugene Rose investigated the accident but were at a loss to know whether the fatal injuries were suffered when the woman fell out onto the road, or if one of the wheels passed over her body. There were no marks on the truck and no eyewitnesses. Miss Robinson was alive when the truck stopped. The driver hailed a passing transport driven by Gordon Hounslow, Brantford, and he took the injured woman to Bailey's garage, where first aid was rendered. Dr. R. G. Fraser, Westdale was called but Miss Robinson passed away from terrible body injuries soon after he arrived. Dr. J. Heurner Mullin, chief coroner, inspected the scene of the accident.

Born In Vinemount

Miss Robinson was born in Vinemount and had resided in the district all her life. Besides her mother, Mrs. William J. When Margaret was five years old, she remembers being outside with her friend Rita Dwyer listening to all the horns honking and bells ringing on November 11, 1918 when World War I was over.

Excerpt from an e-mail written by Ken Wright to David Gustner and Lynne Greening, 4/16/2000. "That brought to mind the wedding announcement of Mom and Dad that said they were going to live at 463 Algonquin after their marriage, so I just called Mom to ask about it. She said they never did live with Lester and Grace. They rented an upstairs apartment first, on a street that she can't remember. Then they rented a house on Eastlawn, then rented at 5039 Lakepointe, where they were when I was born (1938), then moved to another rented house on Lakewood. Then Dad built the house on 60 Hawthorn Blvd in 1941. She could not remember any of the street numbers, but I have a letter addressed to them at the 5039 Lakepointe address. I had no idea that they lived in so many places before Hawthorne, or that they were renting rather than buying. I had just assumed that they lived in a house built by Dad and Lester. Wrong! Another thing she mentioned that I didn't remember is that Lester and Grace moved to Grosse Pointe after Mom and Dad. She thought about a year, making their move from Algonquin to Hawthorn in 1942." We later learned the actual sequence and addresses of where Harold and Margaret Lived.
